(2) Each indemnity in the Agreement is a continuing obligation, separate, and independent from the other obligations of the Parties and survives termination, completion and expiration of the Agreement. It is not necessary for a party to incur expense or make any payment before enforcing a right of indemnity conferred by the Agreement. (3) Without limitation to the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the Customer is responsible for its Losses that it may incur, and for any taxes (including but not limited to any GST and/or duty) that may be applicable, in connection with the Agreement and/or the Hire of the Goods and any other supply of goods and/or services.

(5) If any part of the terms and conditions of the Agreement (including but not limited to these Terms) becomes void or unenforceable for any reason then that part will be severed with the intent that all remaining parts will continue to be in full force and effect and be unaffected by the severance of any other parts. (3) For the purposes of these Credit Terms, and for the avoidance of doubt, a Specified Transaction shall be taken to be a Credit Transaction if: (a) in relation to any supply of goods and/or services, other than by way of any hire, rental, lending, demo or leasing (together a "Hire") of any goods: (i) in relation to a supply of goods to the Customer, if such goods are supplied to the Customer before the Customer has paid for (or has otherwise discharged its obligations in connection with) the supply of such goods in full; (ii) in relation to a supply of services to the Customer, if such services are carried out, before the Customer has paid for (or has otherwise discharged its obligations in connection with) the supply of such services in full (whether such services have been charged for or not); and (b) in relation to any Hire, the Hire of the Goods before the Customer has paid for (or has otherwise discharged its obligations in connection with) such Hire in full (whether such Hire has been charged or not).

2. Credit Transaction and Other Credit Event

(1) In the event of a Credit Transaction relating to a given Specified Transaction, the Customer must pay the full amount owing under the given Specified Transaction on the earlier of: (a) if the Customer has submitted to Allclass a Credit Application (defined below), and such Credit Application has been approved by Allclass and has not been terminated or suspended after such approval (a "Current Approved Credit Application"), then, the earlier of: (i) 29 days (or if such day is not a business day, the immediately succeeding business day) after the commencement of the calendar month which immediately follows the calendar month in which Allclass has charged (or invoiced) the Customer in connection with the given Specified Transaction; (ii) immediately upon demand by Allclass if, an Event of Default, a potential Event of Default or a Force Majeure Event has occurred (whether such events occurred before, on or after the Credit Transaction); and (iii) immediately upon demand by Allclass if, at any given time, the total amount or obligations owing by the Customer to Allclass exceeds, or if Allclass is about to enter into a Credit Transaction or an Other Credit Event is about to occur, that will make the total amount or obligations owing by the Customer to Allclass exceed, $2,000 (the "Credit Limit"); and (b) in all other cases, then immediately: (i) on demand, or (ii) upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, a potential Event of Default or a Force Majeure Event. (2) For the avoidance of doubt, if Allclass for any reason allows the Customer to accumulate credit owing to Allclass that exceeds the Credit Limit at any point in time, that does not mean the Credit Limit as defined herein has been extended and Allclass retains the right to immediately demand payment of all amounts or obligations owing by the Customer to Allclass. (3) For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer must pay any amounts owing to Allclass, and/or perform any obligations owing to Allclass, that form part of an Other Credit Event, immediately upon request. Allclass may, and the Customer irrevocably authorises Allclass to, process payments of any amounts owing to Allclass on the Customer's credit and/or debit card (or nominated credit and/or debit card) at any time without notice, and the Customer agrees to ensure Allclass is notified of the Customer's credit and/or debit card details at any given time that are current and unexpired at such time. (4) Any payments made under these Credit Terms must be made by way of cleared funds to Allclass, by direct deposit into Allclass's nominated bank account or in such other manner as Allclass directs. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Allclass may, and the Customer irrevocably authorises Allclass to, process payments of any amounts owing to Allclass on the Customer's credit and/or debit card (or nominated credit and/or debit card) at any time without notice. The Customer represents that it has authority to give this authority in relation to credit or debit cards not in its name. (5) For the avoidance of doubt, any retention of title clause relating to any Specified Transaction shall not be taken to be amended by reason of any Credit Transaction relating to such Specified Transaction.

3. Credit Application.

(1) Prior to entering into any Credit Transaction, if Allclass request (which it may do at any time), the Customer must complete and sign a credit application form, in a form expressly referred to as a "credit application form" subject to these Credit Terms and in a form acceptable to Allclass in its sole discretion, (the "Credit Application Form"), whereby it will be deemed to apply to Allclass to enter into Credit Transactions with Allclass from time to time, subject to these Credit Terms (a "Credit Application"). (2) For the avoidance of doubt, Allclass may determine whether or not it wishes to accept or approve any Credit Application or any other application for the provision of credit, in its sole discretion, for any reason whatsoever and Allclass may require whatever information, agreements and/or documentation it wishes in its sole discretion (including but not limited to any guarantee and indemnity, any credit references and any trade references) before it agrees to enter into any Credit Transaction with a Customer. (3) If Allclass accepts or approves a Credit Application in writing within seven (7) days of receipt of such Credit Application (or within such other timeframe as Allclass agrees), or if Allclass expressly agrees in writing to reinstate a Credit Application after it has been suspended, then the Customer may enter into Credit Transactions with Allclass in relation to Specified Transactions only, provided the total credit owing to Allclass for all Credit Transactions does not at any point in time exceed the Credit Limit, at all times up until the earlier of (a "CA End Event"): (a) Allclass notifying the Customer that Allclass refuses to or will no longer enter into Credit Transactions with the Customer, and (b) the occurrence of an Event of Default, a potential Event of Default or a Force Majeure Event. If a CA End Event has occurred, the Credit Application will be taken to be either (i) terminated, or (ii) to the extent, and until the time at which, Allclass expressly agrees to reinstate the relevant Credit Application after a CA End Event has occurred, suspended.

4. Right to Refuse Credit & No Commitment.

For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything in these Credit Terms, in any Relevant Transaction, in any application for credit and/or in any document or agreement, or arrangement whatsoever, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that: (a) Allclass may refuse to enter into any Credit Transaction with any Customer at any time without notice to, and without recourse from, the Customer, for any reason whatsoever (including but not limited to as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default, a potential Event of Default and/or a Force Majeure Event), and, for the avoidance of doubt, Allclass may exercise this right whether or not the Customer has completed and/or signed a Credit Application Form. Allclass has accepted or approved a Credit Application of the Customer, and/or Allclass has previously accepted or approved credit applications or other applications for credit by the Customer, or Allclass has previously entered into Credit Transactions with, or has otherwise provided credit (in the past, now or in the future) to, the Customer; and (b) Allclass shall not be deemed to agree, and shall not be deemed to be bound, to provide or grant, or commit to providing or granting, the Customer with any credit whatsoever at any time.

5. Agreements, Acknowledgements, Representations and Warranties.

The Customer represents and warrants as at the date it signs any Credit Application Form, the date of any Relevant Transaction, the date of any Specified Transaction which a Credit Transaction relates to and any date at which the Customer owes Allclass money or has any other outstanding obligations owing to Allclass (such dates being a "Relevant Date") that, and the Customer acknowledges that, and the Customer agrees that: (1) no event that would constitute an Event of Default has occurred on, or within 36 months before, the Relevant Date; (2) all information which it and its agents has provided or made available to Allclass prior to and/or on, and/or makes available after, the Relevant Date (including but not limited to the information set out in any Credit Application) is, and will be, true, accurate, complete, up to date and not misleading; (3) it has provided, and will provide (whether requested or not), Allclass with all information about the Customer and the Customer's financial performance and position and the Customer's credit-worthiness, credit history, credit status and credit capacity (the "Credit Position") which would reasonably be expected to be relevant for Allclass to consider in determining whether or not to provide credit to, the Customer; (4) it has received or has had a reasonable opportunity to receive, and it agrees, is acceptable, and to the extent applicable, has complied with, and will comply with, all applicable terms and conditions as set out in the Allclass Terms of Business Version ATB2012-01 with effective date 16 May 2012 (available upon request or at allclass.com.au) unless (and/or to the extent) Allclass expressly specifies otherwise on allclass.com.au and/or by written notice to the Customer, and/or such other terms and conditions that may apply to certain dealings with Allclass from time to time as expressly specified by Allclass on allclass.com.au and/or by written notice to the Customer (together the "Allclass Terms of Business"); (5) the Customer has complied, and will comply, with all applicable laws, regulations and industry standards relating to any Relevant Transaction; (6) for the avoidance of doubt, any credit provided or agreed to be provided under any Relevant Transaction is, and will be, for commercial and business purposes only and is not, and will not be, for any personal, domestic or household purposes and is not, and will not be, for any residential property purposes; (7) Allclass may (if it elects to do so in its sole discretion) raise any set-off or counterclaim which may be available under or in connection with any Relevant Transaction or any other credit owing by the Customer to Allclass, in satisfaction or reduction of any amount or obligation owing by Allclass (or any of its related parties) to the Customer (or any of its related parties) under any agreement or matter or thing whatsoever. However, the right of set-off or counterclaim is not available to the Customer (nor any of its related parties) in connection with any Relevant Transaction or any other matter or thing whatsoever; (8) Allclass may, and the Customer irrevocably authorises Allclass to, make enquiries as to the Credit Position and the credit and financial responsibilities of the Customer (and/or any of its directors or related parties) in order to suitably qualify the Customer's capacity to incur debt and repay any amounts, and/or perform any obligations, owing to Allclass (including but not limited to obtaining reports from credit reporting agencies and references from current and/or past providers of credit to the Customer); (9) Items of personal information about the Customer in relation to the Customer's credit worthiness, credit history, credit status and/or credit capacity, or that is contained in the Customer's Credit Application, and that is permitted to be kept on a credit information file, might be disclosed by Allclass (in Allclass's discretion) to a credit reporting agency; (10) that, subject to and in accordance with sections 18H(3), 18K(1)(b), (c) and (h) and 18N(1)(b) of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), Allclass may in its discretion, and is hereby irrevocably authorised by the Customer to, obtain credit reports (or any other reports or records relating to the Customer's credit worthiness, credit history, credit status and/or credit capacity) and/or any personal information and/or any other information about the Customer from (as the case may be) any credit reporting agency, bank and/or credit provider for the purposes of (as the case may be): (i) assessing the application for commercial credit by the Customer, (ii) whether to accept the Customer as a guarantor of any credit, (iii) the collection of payments that are overdue in respect of commercial credit provided to the Customer, (iv) enforcing any rights against the Customer in connection with payments that are overdue and/or (v) and related to the management of any commercial credit of the Customer. For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer consents to the disclosure of these Credit Terms and any Customer Credit Application to any such person referred to in this clause; (11) it will notify Allclass as soon as it is aware or reasonably ought to be aware of the occurrence of an Event of Default, a potential Event of Default and/or a Force Majeure Event; (12) to the fullest extent permitted by law, immediately upon receiving written notice by Allclass to such effect following an Event of Default, the Customer will be deemed to charge for the due and punctual payment and performance of the Customer's (and any of its related parties and any Guarantor's) obligations owing to Allclass (and/or any of its related parties), all of the Customer's assets and undertakings, in favour of Allclass (the "Charge") and such Charge will be deemed to be a security agreement under the Personal Property Securities Act (Cth) 2009 ("PPSA") and Allclass will be entitled, and irrevocably authorised to, take such steps as Allclass considers necessary (whether on its own or on the Customer's behalf, as the case may be) to perfect, protect and/or enforce such Charge (including but not limited to registering such Charge on the register for personal property securities or the land registry); and (13) Allclass may charge the Customer, and the Customer must pay Allclass immediately on demand, charges (at Allclass's standard labour hourly rate and such other rates or charges applicable at such time and available on request) for any administration, debt recovery and/or other labour or work carried out or incurred by Allclass that is incidental or related to an Event of Default.

6. Customer's Indemnity.

(1) To the fullest extent permitted by law, notwithstanding anything in this or any other document, terms and conditions or agreement or otherwise the Customer shall indemnify, and immediately reimburse or pay on demand, Allclass for any Losses which Allclass incurs or may incur whatsoever arising as a result of or in connection with: (a) any Relevant Transaction (including but not limited to these Credit Terms); (b) and/or any Event of Default. (2) Without limitation to the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the Customer is responsible for its own Losses that it may incur, and for any taxes (including but not limited to any GST and/or duty) that may be applicable, in connection with any Relevant Transaction (including but not limited to these Credit Terms).

7. General

(1) The Customer shall on Allclass's request, take such steps as to reasonably assist Allclass in exercising Allclass's rights, remedies and/or powers hereunder and in performing Allclass's obligations hereunder. (2) The Customer may not, but Allclass may, assign any of its rights under or in connection with any Relevant Transaction without the other party's written consent. (3) For the avoidance of doubt, the rights, remedies and powers of Allclass under or in relation to a Relevant Transaction (including but not limited under these Credit Terms) are cumulative and neither exclude, limit nor prejudice any other rights, remedies or powers which Allclass may be entitled to at law, in equity or otherwise. (4) The Customer agrees and acknowledges that neither Allclass nor any other person acting on its behalf has made any representation or other statement to induce the Customer or any other person to enter into a Relevant Transaction, and that the Customer has not entered into a Relevant Transaction in reliance on any representations or statements that is not set out in these Credit Terms. (6) No delay or omission by Allclass to exercise any right, power or remedy available to Allclass as a result of a breach or default under a Relevant Transaction (including but not limited under the Credit Terms) will impair any such right, power or remedy nor will it be construed as a waiver of Allclass's rights to take action or make a claim in respect of such breach or default. (7) If any part of the terms and conditions of any Relevant Transaction (including but not limited to these Credit Terms) becomes void or unenforceable for any reason then that part will be severed with the intent that all remaining parts will continue to be in full force and effect and be unaffected by the severance of any other parts. (8) The Customer shall treat all information it receives from Allclass in connection with any Relevant Transaction, any Specified Transaction and any other transaction or agreement as strictly confidential. (9) The Customer agrees to give Allclass 14 days' notice of any change in the Customer's contact details and any other details that it has given Allclass. (10) Any Relevant Transaction (including but not limited to these Credit Terms) shall be governed by the laws of Queensland and the Customer agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland.

1. Application.

(1) These terms and conditions are the "Allclass Guarantee & Indemnity Terms Version AGT2012-01" with effective date 16 May 2012 (the "G&I Terms") (available upon request or at allclass.com.au) and, unless (and/or to the extent) Postville Pty Ltd ABN 23 057 201 626 ("Allclass") expressly specifies otherwise on allclass.com.au and/or by written notice to the Guarantor (defined below), these G&I Terms shall apply to any Guarantor (defined below). (2) For the purposes of these G&I Terms, a "Guarantor" is any person who expressly agrees in writing in any document to give the Guarantee (defined below) and/or Indemnity (defined below) in favour of Allclass subject to these G&I Terms, and the "Customer" for the purposes of these G&I Terms will be the person specified to be the "Customer" in such written document. (3) For the purposes of these G&I Terms, the "Customer" will be the person or entity as determined in the definition of Guarantor in clause 1(2). (4) For the purposes of these G&I Terms the "Guaranteed Obligations" means: (a) all monies that are due and payable or that become due and payable from time to time by the Customer (whether alone or jointly with another person) to Allclass in connection with the provision of goods and/or services by Allclass to the Customer from time to time on credit, (ii) all other monies which the Customer (whether alone or jointly with another person) is or becomes liable to pay Allclass, whether actually, contingently or otherwise, under any agreement or as a result of any matter or thing whatsoever, and (iii) any other obligation or obligations that are owing to Allclass as at such time, and/or become owing to Allclass in the future, whether actually, contingently or otherwise, for any reason whatsoever, howsoever arising, whether alone or jointly with another person. (5) For the avoidance of doubt, the Guarantor shall be deemed to give a Guarantee (defined below) and/or an Indemnity (defined below) in consideration of Allclass supplying, or agreeing to supply to the Customer's request or otherwise, certain goods and/or services to the Customer on credit from time to time. (6) For the purposes of these G&I Terms: (i) an "Event of Default" in relation to a particular party (the "Defaulting Party"), means the occurrence of any one or more of the following events: (a) any breach of any, and/or any failure to perform any, duty or obligation owing and/or due and payable to, and/or any misrepresentation to, Allclass and/or any of its related parties, by the Defaulting Party and/or any of its related parties, under contract, tort, statute and/or any other law and/or equity and/or otherwise; (b) the occurrence of an Insolvency Event relating to that Defaulting Party and/or any of its related parties; (c) any guarantee and/or indemnity in favour of Allclass and relating to the Defaulting Party (and/or any of its related parties), being terminated (for whatever reason) and/or being void, voidable, invalid and/or unenforceable at law; (d) any event of default under any agreement between Allclass and the Defaulting Party and/or any of its related parties; (e) any material change in control of the Defaulting Party and/or, any of its related parties; (f) any material change in the Defaulting Party's and/or any of its related parties' business; (g) any change in law that adversely affects Allclass's rights hereunder; and (h) any other event that materially adversely affects Allclass; (ii) an "Insolvency Event" in relation to a particular party (the "Insolvent Party") means an event where: (a) the Insolvent Party, any of its related parties and/or a guarantor of the Insolvent Party, is (whether deemed by law or otherwise), or states (or in effect states) that it is, unable to pay its debts as and when they fall due; (b) if any step is taken by any person in relation to the winding-up, dissolution, bankruptcy, administration, re-organisation or other similar process of, and/or the appointment of a liquidator, official trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, administrative receiver, administrator, or other similar officer of, and/or the enforcement of any security over any assets of, and/or the enforcement of any guarantee in relation to, the Insolvent Party, any of its related parties, and/or a guarantor of the Insolvent Party; (c) the Insolvent Party, any of its related parties and/or a guarantor ceases to carry on business; and/or (d) any other similar or analogous event; and (iii) a "Force Majeure Event" means an event that prevents or delays Allclass in performing or complying with any of its obligations under or in connection with any Guarantee and/or Indemnity or any other matter or thing whatsoever, that is due, in whole or part, to any cause, whatsoever and howsoever arising, that is beyond Allclass's reasonable control. (7) For the avoidance of doubt, where there is more than one Guarantor their liability under their Guarantee and Indemnity shall be joint and several.

2. Guarantee and Indemnity.

(1) The Guarantor agrees to unconditionally and irrevocably guarantee (the "Guarantee") on demand to Allclass the Customer's due and punctual payment and/or performance (as the case may be) of the Guaranteed Obligations as and when such Guaranteed Obligations are or become owing and/or due and payable to Allclass, or upon the occurrence of an Event of Default relating to the Customer (a "Customer Event of Default") and, for the avoidance of doubt, if for any reason whatsoever the Customer fails to pay and/or perform (as the case may be) such Guaranteed Obligations as and when such Guaranteed Obligations are or become owing and/or due and payable to Allclass, or if a Customer Event of Default occurs, then the Guarantor shall, immediately on demand by Allclass, pay and/or perform (as the case may be) such Guaranteed Obligations. (2) The Guarantor agrees that the Guarantee (a) is a principal obligation and will not be treated as ancillary or collateral to any other right or obligation howsoever created or arising; (b) is a continuing guarantee and remains in full force and effect until (i) a final release is given by Allclass to the Guarantor in writing expressly releasing and/or discharging the Guarantor from its obligations under the Guarantee; and (ii) all of the Guaranteed

Obligations outstanding as at the time of such final release are paid and/or performed (as the case may be) in full; (c) for the avoidance of doubt, will not be considered to be partially or wholly released and/or discharged by reason of any Guaranteed Obligations that are owing and/or due and payable by the Guarantor to Allclass at any given time being paid and/or performed (as the case may be) in part or in full by any person (including but not limited to any intermediate payments by the Customer). (3) The Guarantor agrees to unconditionally and irrevocably indemnify Allclass against (the "Indemnity"), and to pay Allclass immediately on demand, for any and all losses, damages, injury, death, theft, liabilities (including but not limited to liabilities in respect of all claims, demands, actions, suits, proceeds and costs), costs, fees, fines expenses, charges, taxes (including but not limited to any GST or duty) and/or any other losses whatsoever, howsoever arising, whether direct or indirect, (including but not limited to any legal fees and any internal costs and charges) (the "Losses") that Allclass incur or may incur from time to time, arising as a result of or in connection with: (a) the Customer's failure to perform the Guaranteed Obligations as and when such Guaranteed Obligations are or become owing and/or due and payable to Allclass; (b) the Guarantee and/or Indemnity; (c) any Customer Event of Default; and/or (d) any Event of Default relating to the Guarantor (a "Guarantor Event of Default"). (4) The Guarantor agrees that the Indemnity: (a) is additional to, separate from and independent of the Guarantor's obligations under the Guarantee; (b) is a principal obligation and will not be treated as ancillary or collateral to any other right or obligation howsoever created or arising; (c) is a continuing indemnity and remains in full force and effect until (i) a final release is given by Allclass to the Guarantor in writing expressly releasing and/or discharging the Guarantor from its obligations under the Indemnity and (ii) Allclass receives all amounts owing to it under the Indemnity at such time. (5) For the avoidance of doubt, the Guarantor agrees to make the payments owing and/or due and payable to Allclass hereunder: (a) as and when demanded by Allclass as a principal debtor; and (b) notwithstanding that: (i) the Guarantor has not agreed to the provision of any particular goods and/or services by Allclass to the Customer; and (ii) the Guarantor has no notice of any neglect or omission on the part of the Customer.

3. Guarantor Acknowledgements and Agreements.

The Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that: (1) that the Guarantor will provide Allclass with information concerning the credit-worthiness, credit history, credit status and/or credit capacity (the "Credit Position") of the Guarantor immediately upon Allclass's request; (2) that any information the Guarantor provides Allclass in connection with the Guarantee and/or Indemnity (whether requested or not) is true, accurate, complete, up to date and not misleading in any respect; (3) that the Guarantor shall ensure it shall comply with any applicable laws and regulations in connection with the Guarantee and/or Indemnity; (4) that the Guarantor is acceptable with, and has satisfied itself as to, the Credit Position of the Customer and any agreements and terms and conditions that Allclass and the Customer have, or enter into, with each other from time to time, and that Allclass is not required to notify the Customer of such Credit Position, agreements and/or terms and conditions prior to or at any time after the Guarantor agreeing to the G&I Terms; (5) that the Guarantor has received or has had a reasonable opportunity to receive, and to the extent applicable agrees to, has complied with and will comply with the applicable terms and conditions as set out in the Allclass Terms of Business Version ATB2012-01 with effective date 16 May 2012 (available upon request or at allclass.com.au) unless (and/or to the extent) Allclass expressly specifies otherwise on allclass.com.au and/or by written notice to the Guarantor, and/or such other terms and conditions that may apply to certain dealings with Allclass from time to time as expressly specified by Allclass on allclass.com.au and/or by written notice to the Guarantor (together the "Allclass Terms of Business"); (6) has had full unrestricted opportunity to seek independent legal and financial advice on the Guarantor's rights and obligations hereunder prior to agreeing to the G&I Terms; (7) that Allclass may at any time in its sole discretion, for any reason whatsoever, and without notice to and without recourse from the Guarantor, and without affecting the Guarantor's liability hereunder, refuse to provide goods and/or services to the Customer and/or terminate any agreement with the Customer for any reason whatsoever; (8) the Guarantor's liability hereunder shall not be affected by any changes, amendments, variations or replacements to any, or by the creation of any new or additional, agreements or terms and conditions between Allclass and the Customer from time to time (including but not limited to there being an increase in the Customer's credit limit with Allclass) or by Allclass supplying the Customer additional goods and/or services from time to time, even if the Guarantor's liability is increased as a result (a "Change") and Allclass is not required to notify the Guarantor of any such Change; (9) Allclass is not obliged to make any demand of any person before requesting payment and/or performance (as the case may be) of any of the Guaranteed Obligations from the Guarantor; (10) the Guarantor's liability hereunder is absolute and shall not be affected by any giving of time for payment and/or performance (as the case may be) or by any granting of any indulgence whatsoever, whether by any change, amendment or variation to or replacement of any agreements or terms and conditions between Allclass and the Customer, or by any omission on the part of Allclass to enforce any obligation against the Guarantor, or by any other fact, act or omission whereby the liabilities of the Guarantor hereunder, but for this clause, might have been diminished or discharged; (11) for the avoidance of doubt, any goods and/or services provided to the Customer by Allclass from time to time are for commercial and business purposes only and are not for any personal, domestic or household purposes and are not for any residential property purposes; (12) Allclass may (if it elects to do so in its sole discretion) raise any set-off or counterclaim which may be available under or in connection with any Guarantee and/or Indemnity or any other credit owing by the Guarantor to Allclass, in satisfaction or reduction of any amount or obligation owing by Allclass (or any of its related parties) to the Guarantor (or any of its related parties) under any agreement or matter or thing whatsoever. However, the right of set-off or counterclaim is not available to the Guarantor (nor any of its related parties) in connection with any Guarantee and/or Indemnity or any other matter or thing whatsoever; (13) Allclass may, and the Guarantor irrevocably authorises Allclass to, make enquiries as to the Credit Position, and the credit and financial responsibilities, of the Guarantor (and/or any of its directors or related parties) in order to suitably qualify the Guarantor's capacity to incur debt and repay any amounts, and/or perform any obligations, owing to Allclass (including but not limited to obtaining reports from credit reporting agencies and references from current and/or past providers of credit to the Guarantor); (14) The Guarantee and the Indemnity is in addition to and not in substitution for any other security, or right currently held, or which will be taken, by Allclass in respect to the Customer; (15) the Guarantor may not prove in any insolvency administration of the Customer in competition with Allclass without Allclass's consent; (16) to the fullest extent permitted by law, immediately upon receiving written notice by Allclass to such effect following a Guarantor Event of Default, the Guarantor will be deemed to charge for the due and punctual payment and performance of the Guarantor's obligations owing to Allclass (and/or any of its related parties), all of the Customer's assets and undertakings, in favour of Allclass (the "Charge") and such Charge will be deemed to be a security agreement under the Personal Property Securities Act (Cth) 2009 ("PPSA") and Allclass will be entitled, and irrevocably authorised to, take such steps as Allclass considers necessary (whether on its own or on the Guarantor's behalf, as the case may be) to perfect, protect and/or enforce such Charge (including but not limited to registering such Charge on the register for personal property securities or the land registry); (17) Items of personal information about the Guarantor in relation to the Guarantor's Credit Position, or that is contained in a credit application, and that is permitted to be kept on a credit information file, might be disclosed by Allclass (in Allclass's discretion) to a credit reporting agency; (18) that, subject to and in accordance with sections 18H(3), 18K(1)(b), (c) and (h) and 18N(1)(b) of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), Allclass may in its discretion, and is hereby irrevocably authorised by the Guarantor to, obtain credit reports (or any other reports or records relating to the Guarantor's Credit Position) and/or any personal information and/or any other information about the Guarantor from (as the case may be) any credit reporting agency, bank and/or credit provider for the purposes of (as the case may be): (i) assessing the application for commercial credit by the Customer and/or Guarantor, (ii) whether to accept the Guarantor as a guarantor of any credit, (iii) the collection of payments that are overdue in respect of commercial credit provided to the Customer and/or Guarantor, (iv) enforcing any rights against the Customer and/or Guarantor in connection with payments that are overdue and/or (v) and related to the management of any commercial credit of the Customer and/or Guarantor. For the avoidance of doubt, the Guarantor consents to the disclosure of these G&I Terms and any credit application to any such person referred to in this clause; (19) Allclass may charge the Guarantor, and the Guarantor must pay Allclass immediately on demand, charges (at Allclass's standard labour hourly rate and such other rates or charges applicable at such time and available on request) for any administration, debt recovery and/or other labour or work carried out or incurred by Allclass that is incidental or related to a Guarantor Event of Default; (20) any payments made under the Guarantee and/or the Indemnity must be made by way of cleared funds to Allclass, by direct deposit into Allclass's nominated bank account or in such other manner as Allclass directs. Allclass may, and the Guarantor irrevocably authorises Allclass to, process payments of any amounts owing to Allclass on the Guarantor's credit or debit card (or nominated credit or debit card) at any time without notice. The Guarantor represents that it has authority to give this authority in relation to credit or debit cards not in its name; and (21) Without limitation to anything herein, and for the avoidance of doubt, the Guarantor is responsible for its own Losses that it may incur, and for any taxes (including but not limited to any GST and/or duty) that may be applicable, in connection with the Guarantee and/or Indemnity.

4. General.

(1) The Guarantor shall on Allclass's request, take such steps as to reasonably assist Allclass in exercising Allclass's rights, remedies and/or powers hereunder and in performing Allclass's obligations hereunder. (2) For the avoidance of doubt, the rights, remedies and powers of Allclass under or in relation to a Guarantee and/or Indemnity (including but not limited under these G&I Terms) are cumulative and neither exclude, limit nor prejudice any other rights, remedies or powers which Allclass may be entitled to at law, in equity or otherwise. (3) The Guarantor agrees and acknowledges that neither Allclass nor any other person acting on its behalf has made any representation or other statement to the Guarantor or any other person to enter into a Guarantee and/or Indemnity and that the Guarantor has not entered into a Guarantee and/or Indemnity in reliance on any representations or inducements that is not set out in these G&I Terms. (4) No delay or omission by Allclass to exercise any right, power or remedy available to Allclass hereunder will impair any such right, power or remedy nor will it be construed as a waiver of Allclass's rights to take action or make a claim. (5) If any part of the terms and conditions of these G&I Terms becomes void or unenforceable for any reason then that part will be severed with the intent that all remaining parts will continue to be in full force and effect and be unaffected by the severance of any other parts. (6) The Guarantor shall treat all information it receives from Allclass in connection with any Guarantee and/or Indemnity and any other transaction or agreement as strictly confidential.
